WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1864

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the heritage your valor must save.

A BAD STATE OF THINGS.—We can hardly believe the statement made in the dispatch published yesterday, that more than fifty million of dollars were paid at the New York Custom House during the last week. If such be the truth, while we are glad to have the Government get the money, which it needs, we are very sorry that this nation is weakening itself by paying such enormous tribute to foreign lands. The United States ought to raise or to produce from the resources and labor and intelligence of their own population, every article which is demanded for comfort or even luxury. But it would seem that in the midst of war, which taxes the energies of the people severely, and which is rapidly absorbing the wealth of the land, we are importing more goods than ever—actually our sharp other countries, which have no sympathy for us, except what we pay for—certainly it would be far better for our wealth, if our ports were all shut up. A nation at war should anxiously save its wealth. A wise political economist writes, "that if an embargo had been made in 1861, enough would have been saved to pay all the expenses of the war." Perhaps this is extravagant, but we cannot help feeling alarmed on account of the enormous sums which the country is daily paying. There must be a settlement sometime—heavy and severe. We should prefer that the good, practical sense of the nation should see its danger and prudently avoid trouble in advance.

JOHN DAY ITEMS.—By private letter under date of April 25th, from Canyon City, we learn, that the Indians are still committing murders and thefts on the road to that mining camp from the Dalles, despite the presence of a detachment of troops on the South Fork.

Owing to late rains and snow in the mountains, the miners have rather more water than they want at present,—the John Day's is not fordable and all travel in that direction is obliged to keep up this side of the river.

In consequence of the high waters and the Indian depredations, freights have gone up, and all articles, especially provisions, are rapidly raising; flour was, at our correspondent's writing, $16 per hundred. Another cause of this advance is found in the expressed intention of packers to withdraw their trains from the route when the troops now on the South Fork shall have gone to join the expedition against the Snake Indians, as they are now awaiting orders to do. Some appear to entertain the idea that the presence of the soldiers is of more benefit to the safety of the road than their moving into the heart of the Indian country will be; that the Indian depredations are committed by small parties who have scarcely any abiding place, while others are of opinion that the Indians will be compelled to hunt their holes and consolidate their forces, when Capt. Drake's command marches into the country where they must keep their stock and their families. Quien sabe!

A rumor was current, of which our correspondent could not get the particulars, of a shooting affray just below Canyon City. As related to him, a Mr. Davis had attacked a Mr. Ramsay, with a double-barelled shot-gun, which a third party struck up just as it was leveled at Ramsay, and that Ramsay then drew his revolver and shot Davis through the arm, and was about to shoot again, but was prevented by the same person who knocked aside Davis' gun. The cause of the fight was reported to be, that Ramsay had made insulting propositions to Davis's wife during the absence of Davis with the volunteer company from the canyon again at the Indians.

Our correspondent adds in a P. S., that the above account of the shooting affray is substantially correct. That Ramsay was arrested and has since escaped.

MESSRS. Jones & Edgar have completed their arrangements to run an express from the Dalles to Owyhee via Canyon City, as far as Canyon in Concord wagons, from thence on pack animals.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.—Colonel Maury and staff have left Fort Dalles, for Fort Boise, where the Col. will make his headquarters when not in the field. A train of 26 mule teams also left Fort Dalles, on Monday, for Capt. Drake's Expedition which is now encamped about fifteen miles beyond the Warm Springs Reserve. They will remain there until joined by Lieut. Waymire, when they will take up the line of march for Crooked River. Lieut. Waymire, with a detachment of men, will remain at the Reserve, as a guard against marauding bands of the Snakes who are in the habit of pouncing down upon that locality and running off stock belonging to friendly Indians.

The Great Sanitary Fair in New York closed on the 24th April. It realized $1,10,000. The result of the voting for a sword for the favorite—Gen. Grant, received $30,000; McClellan, $14,500.

On Tuesday, April 26th, the Onward discharged fifty-four tons of freight at Albany. A part of this was machinery for a planing mill, now in course of erection in this place by W. Althouse and Co. They expect to have it in running order by the first of June.—Albany Journal.

A VERY HEAVY BLOW.—The Portland correspondent of the Bulletin abundantly sprinkles up the Democratic platform in the following words:

> I cannot but think there is an "irrepressible conflict" between the first and 2d paragraphs of this political structure. The first adopts the Kentucky and Virginia resolutions of '98, and the other condemns the action of those States that have placed themselves in rebellion against the Government. As comparatively few people of this generation ever read the resolutions of '98, I quote from the Kentucky edition of these twin dogmas, prepared by Jefferson:
> "That the Government (i. e. the United States) created by this compact (the Constitution of the United States) was not made the exclusive or final judge of the powers delegated to itself, * * but that as in all other cases of compact, among powers having no common judge, each party (the States) has an equal right to judge for itself, as well of infractions as the mode and measure of redress."

The unmistakeable meaning of this language is, that the Federal Government is in no sense supreme; in short, is no government at all, but only a time-being partnership between sovereign States; and that each party (States) to the compact, determines for itself when there is an infraction of the compact, and each for itself being the sole judge of the "mode and measure of redress," may, at its own sovereign pleasure nullify the action and authority of the Federal Government within its own boundaries, or secede, or withdraw from the compact or partnership altogether. The Convention in adopting the resolutions of '98, must be understood as asserting that the principles therein enunciated were sound and correct. With what consistency, then, could the Convention in the next breath pondemn the revolted States for putting in force and practice those very principles? If those States had the right to adopt any "mode or measure of redress," may not the own sovereign pleasure nullify the action and authority of the Federal Government within its own boundaries, or secede, or withdraw from the compact or partnership altogether. The Convention in adopting the resolutions of '98, must be understood as asserting that the principles therein enunciated were sound and correct. With what consistency, then, could the Convention in the next breath pondemn the revolted States for putting in force and practice those very principles? If those States had the right to adopt any "mode or measure of redress," then I submit, that whether they acted wisely or unwisely, or upon what others might consider sufficient or insufficient reasons, no other State has a right to condemn them or call their conduct in question, and the Democratic Convention in so doing have directly violated the first canon of its own professed creed. Between equal States, having no "common judge" or superior government, each for itself must be the sole and exclusive judge of its own internal affairs, and how far and how long it will maintain external relations with other States.

All men and associations of men, who have from time to time arrayed themselves against the power of the Federal Government, because they couldn't control it, whether in Massachusetts or Carolina, have in some way relied upon these seditious resolutions of '98 to justify their conduct. They are and have been the pestilent seed egg of nullification, secession, personal liberty bills, and every form of insubordination and anarchy that has cursed the country. If the doctrines they inculcate were carried out to their legitimate results, a Government of the United States worthy of the name would be impossible.

DISHONEST GOVERNMENT CONTRACTORS SENT TO FORT LAFAYETTE.—Government is making great havoc among dishonest contractors, seizing upon their ill-gotten gains and consigning their worthless carcasses to Fort Lafayette without fear or favor. Some few weeks ago, a naval contractor named Stover, who in the short space of less than a year had cheated the Government out of over $100,000, was sent to the Fort, where he will have the pleasure of counting up his gains and losses for a period of twelve months. This man Stover had made all his gains through the Navy Yard in Brooklyn, where it is understood he had succeeded in bribing some of the clerks to assist him in his dishonest operations. But $100,000 over his legitimate profits were not enough, it would seem, to satisfy the rapacity of this Stover, so he must needs try the virtue of bribery in another quarter, to wit, at the Charlestown Navy Yard. Here, however, he happened to stumble at the outset upon an honest clerk, and hence his exposure and his present grief. The modus operandi of this fellow at the Brooklyn Navy Yard was, as I am given to understand, to send over, say, 50,000 pound of copper and obtain from the party in complicity with him a voucher for 100,000 pounds.

Two other gentlemen of the swindling profession, named respectively Schofield and Raymond, were arrested in Brooklyn last Sunday and consigned to the Fort to keep company with Stover. One of these parties, Schofield, is said to have defrauded Government of $300,000 within the short space of a year. Both of these parties were less than two years ago bankrupts; they having failed in the hardware business and been reported as showing no assets. Within the past six months they have each built himself a magnificent residence in Clinton avenue, and one of them had set up his carriage with liveried coachmen.

Another arrest has been made in Boston of one Smith, also a hardware merchant, who is likewise immured in Fort Lafayette. The extent of Smith's swindles is not stated. This Smith is the individual who in the beginning of the war attempted to send a yacht from Boston under circumstances of a nature so suspicious that he was arrested. He was subsequently released and allowed to send off his vessel on giving bonds for the loyalty of her voyage. He always has been and is a bitter Secession sympathizer. The same may be said of all three of the parties arrested here. The Copperheads, therefore, who may feel disposed on reading this narrative to cry out: "See how these Republicans cheat one another!" had better not do any such thing. Copperheads all have the same object in view, though they do not all seek to reach it by the same means.

STATE ITEMS.—We clip the following paragraphs from the Oregon Statesman of Monday, May 2d:

> The county indebtedness of Josephine county amounts to $21,693.
> The brig Energy not long since ran on the rocks near the mouth of Coos Bay, and has become a total loss.
> There were over one million feet of lumber shipped from Coos Bay from the 1st to the 20th of April.
> Archbishop Blanchet is in Southern Oregon, endeavoring to raise means for the establishment at Jacksonville of an academy for young ladies, to be under the direction of the Sisters.
> A correspondent writing from Empire City says the people there are nearly crazy on the subject of mineral wealth—having found a dark-colored rock, and not knowing what it contains.
> A party of near a dozen citizens leave town this morning for the Santiam Mines. They are connected with the Santiam Gold and Silver Mining Company, and their purpose is to take out the ore.

GRASSHOPPERS.—The settlers of Tygh Valley, Wasco county, are again threatened with a visitation of the grasshopper plague. Last year the crops in that valley were nearly all destroyed by this plague, and now the ground is again literally covered with these pests. The depredations of these insects extended over nearly the whole of the country east of the mountains last year, and among those who suffered most were the gardeners in the neighborhood of the Dalles, who in some instances lost their entire crops.

TROOPS FOR GRAY'S HARBOR.—In compliance with a requisition from C. H. Hale, Esq., Indian Superintendent, Capt. Tucker, commandant at Fort Steilacoom, dispatched 18 men, under Lieut. Jessee, on the 13th ult., for Gray's Harbor, W. T. The requisition was made under an apprehension of trouble with the Indians in that vicinity, though no hostile demonstration has yet been made by them. It is believed that the presence of a few soldiers will keep them quiet and peaceable.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to May 2.

MADISON COURT HOUSE, VA., BURNED TO ASHES.

Strength of Lee's Army—Eastern North Carolina evacuated to reinforce it—They throw up more Earthworks on Fredericksburg Heights.

THE REBELS CONSIDER SHREVEPORT IMPREGNABLE.

An Iron-Clad Captured.

30,000 Rebel Cavalry near Port Hudson.

Skirmishes with Guerrillas.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Information received from the Army of the Potomac to-night states that the troops who went to Madison Court-House on the 28th, burned the town to ashes. It is unknown whether this was done by order or not.

Deserters who came in yesterday report Lee's army 80,000 strong, with 22,000 effective cavalry; all in good condition, with ten days supplies, and railroads running night and day bringing reinforcements.

The enemy's pickets extend up and down the Rappahannock, and a considerable force is reported at Fredericksburg throwing up more earthworks on the heights.

The rebels are reported withdrawing from Madison Court-House and concentrating in front of our left and center. One division of Longstreet's Corps, according to deserters, is at Hanover Junction as a reserve.

The Herald's Newbern letter of the 26th says: Information has been received here that the rebel authorities have taken possession of all the railroads in the South for the next sixty days, during which time non-combatants will not be allowed to travel on them. It has also been ascertained that troops from Charleston have been brought to Wilmington to relieve the troops who have since proceeded to Richmond.

New Orleans advices state that the refugees from Shreveport reports that place protected by 14 miles of fortifications, which the rebels consider impregnable against anything short of 150,000 men.

There was a report among the rebels that General Steele was moving towards Shreveport with 22,000 men and that Price with 47,000 men was opposing him.

The gunboat Estport remained ashore 10 miles below Grand Ecore, and two gunboats were aground on the falls above Alexandria.

30,000 rebel cavalry were reported in the neighborhood of Clinton, above Port Hudson. Their intention is supposed to be to lay waste plantations worked by loyalists.

CAIRO, May 1.—Advices from Duvall's Bluff, Arkansas, of the 20th, say that a small band of guerillas are still infesting the country about that place, threatening to interfere with the navigation of White river.

A cavalry force, on the 22d, had a fight with a band of guerillas 30 miles from the Bluff, in which 30 rebels, including several officers, were captured.

On the 22d, an ironclad was surprised two miles above Yazoo City and captured by the rebels. A number of our men were killed.

Grand Ecore letters say that the feeling against Banks among the soldiers and others was more intense every day. The army has lost confidence in him as a General, and no good result can be hoped for in that department until a new Commander shall be appointed.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The expedition sent from Vienna on the 28th, has returned, having visited Leesburg and Upperville. At the latter place they encountered a portion of Moseby's guerillas, had after a severe fight the rebels were repulsed with six killed and wounded, and 22 captured. Our loss was seven killed and wounded. The expedition also captured a number of horses, a large quantity of wool and tobacco, and other contraband goods.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 1.—Little Washington, N. C., was evacuated by our forces on the 28th, the troops there being wanted elsewhere.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The Commercial's special says that Gen. Wessels' command are at Salisbury, en route for Richmond, and the rebels have evacuated Plymouth, and all Eastern North Carolina, to swell the ranks of Lee's army.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Troops of the 15th, 16th and 17th corps, who have been encamped at Cairo, have gone to Northern Alabama.

Gen. Ransom has published a card denying that Gen. Stone was in any way responsible for the reverse in Louisiana.

European Intelligence.

The London Times attributes the slight rally in the Confederate loan and the rejection of the Paris Bourse, to the open defiance of France on the Mexican question by the House of Representatives at Washington. The Times thinks, however, there will be some action of the House upon it.

Additional Eastern News.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Burnside has issued a circular, dated Headquarters Eighth Army Corps, Annapolis, saying: "This army being on the eve of a movement, no application for furlough will be granted." It is stated that Burnside applied for more time to get more men.

The Navy Department advices from the Potomac flotilla say the expedition up the Rappahannock resulted in the destruction of ten forges, eleven large lighters, each capable of carrying 100 men, three pontoon bridges, a number of large boats, a lot of small arms, and a considerable amount of bacon. Some 500 rebels made an attack on the Eureka, one of the boats with the expedition, and were handsomely whipped. Commodore Foote has information that the rebels have placed torpedoes in the Rappahannock and all the branches of the Chesapeake.

The Navy Department is trying to regain the ground lost at Plymouth. The rebel ram there will be attended to.

Intelligence from Newbern, N. C., to the 22d, says Gov. Vance is a candidate for re-election. He has been with Lee's army on an electioneering tour. A correspondent in Lee's army says: "We have resolved to suspend any of our men who vote for those who hold us by the thumbs," over which the Raleigh Press is very indignant and predicts the defeat of Vance by the people if to encourages it. James M. Leach, the peace man, is elected to the Confederate Congress for the Seventh District in this State, by a large majority.

Vance and Jeff. Davis are having a personal quarrel over the blockade-running steamer Advance, which belongs to North Carolina, and makes regular trips between Wilmington and Nassau. Davis insists that North Carolina steamers shall carry part of their cargoes at Government prices and sell them at the same price. Vance informs Davis that as the steamer belongs to North Carolina, enters North Carolina ports, and brings clothing and supplies for her troops, Davis can have no voice in the matter. Vance says these steamers have not only enabled him to clothe, arm and equip the troops of this State, as well as those of Mississippi, but also enabled him to add a surplus of several millions to the State treasury.

The powder mills at Raleigh, N. C., exploded on the 5th, killing several.

Gen. W. P. White, of Georgetown, S. C., was assassinated by his own troops.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The rebel account of the capture of Fort Pillow acknowledges that an indiscriminate slaughter followed the surrender, and says the Fort ran red with blood. Many jumped into the river and were drowned, or were killed while attempting to escape.

CHICAGO, April 27.—The House last night passed the Senate bill reported from the Committee on Public Lands, with reference to the donation of land claims in Oregon and Washington Territory. The bill for lands to that State for the construction of a wagon road for military or postal purposes, also passed.

SHORT RATIONS.—A half-famished fellow in the Southern States tells of a baker, whose loaves had been growing "smaller by degrees and beautifully less," who, when going its rounds to serve customers, stopped at the door of one and knocked, when the lady within exclaimed, "Who's there?" and was answered, "the baker." "What do you want?" "To leave your bread." "Well, you need not make such a fuss about it—put it through the keyhole!"

APPEALED.—In the case of young Howe, who was to have had another trial before the U. S. District Court, for the killing of B. F. Kendall, an appeal has been taken to a higher tribunal. A private letter from his father, received in this place, announces the death of Horace Howe, in Santa Clara, Cal., (whither he had gone for the benefit of his health) on the 24th ult. Thus ends that trial.—Puget Sound Herald.

Washington Items.

Mr. Flint, the intelligent correspondent of the S. F. Journal, writes as follows:

PASSAGE OF THE BILL TO ALLOW THE SECRETARY TO SELL SURPLUS GOLD.

A thirty days' war has been waged between the bears and bulls of Wall street, in which both sides have laid siege to the Capitol from the outs and ins of office—one party endeavoring to pass a bill which should cheapen gold, and the other persistently laboring to defeat measure, which would unlock the vaults of the Treasury, and lower the price of this commodity. Marches and countermarches have been the order of the day, during which free inches and free everything, which could be supposed to have charms for dignified Senators, all fast M. C.'s have been abandoned to the evident delight of the lobby and the depletion of the pockets of the gold gamesters.

The bill was practically defeated while Secretary Chase was in the field as a Presidential candidate, by the united votes of those Republicans opposed to his nomination. The Copperheads acting on the principle that the more the Government was embarrassed in its finances, the better their prospects would become for carrying the elections while the Republican conservative opponents of the Secretary, saw that it would not do to let him have such a lever of popularity to aid his political aspirations as would be the breaking down of the gold speculators and bringing the National currency nearly on a par with specie, hence they could not be persuaded to go for the passage of the bill until after the publication of the letter of Mr. Chase formally withdrawing from the field as a Presidential candidate. Even after this sacrifice of the great financier of self to patriotic duty to country, there were many votes grudgingly given to this bill, by those who still fear that his wonderful success in the management of the finances of the nation will bring him before the people as the best man to be at the head of the government for the next four years.

While the vote was being taken in the House, I sat in the Reporter gallery, which opens into the telegraph office, and was amused to see the different expressions on the countenances of the gold speculators who crowded the hall when the telegraph instruments were waiting to send the news to Wall street on the lightning wings. It was surmised that the bill would pass, but with a close vote, but when Boutwell of Mass., who had been the ablest opponent of it, voted aye, the excitement in the telegraph hall became indescribable. Boutwell's name was high up on the roll of numbers, and it was known by his vote that the bill would pass by a large majority. Such a crowding and hustling to get dispatches in first, I never saw before. Large premiums in greenbacks were offered for priority in time of transmitting dispatches and if this was any indication of what was to be expected among the bulls and bears in Wall street, it must have been high carnival among the moony bags in that great centre of American finance, after the news became public that Secretary Chase was voted by Congress to enter the lists as both bull and bear, to act as circumstances might demand, for the interest of the government.

Mr. Chase's views of finance are broad, comprehensive and far-reaching, and I do not believe that he will enter the market as a seller of gold in such quantities as to produce a sudden and grand decline in its price, which would bring on a collapse in financial circles, but he will doubtless pour so steady a supply upon the market, that speculators will be unable to absorb its constant overflowing volume. In this way, like the exhaustless spring which will fill a great reservoir, gold will be made to seek the commercial level of supply and demand uninfluenced by factitious efforts to depress or raise it by speculative operations.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS TO DROP FROM THE ROLLS UNEMPLOYED ARMY OFFICERS.

At first glance it would seem that this measure which provides for striking from army rolls the names of all officers who have been out of active employment for a certain length of time was right in principle, and would tend to the benefit of the service. Let us take a look at its operation if carried into effect. The power of assigning officers to commands or leaving them without any lies with the President, the Secretary of War and General-in-Chief. Now suppose that from some political or personal reason the President or boards of a department should desire to get rid of an officer they disliked, all that would be necessary, if this resolution passed, would be to leave such an officer without a command for the specified time, when he would drop from the roll of the resolution. Thus, in time, a President or Commander-in-Chief of the Army, who desired to fill all of the commands with creatures who would be entirely subservient to any ulterious purposes they might have in view, would be substituted in the place of those who could not be corrupted for any sinister ends, the heads of the Government might accomplish. This resolution, probably, without any intention on the part of its authors, would prove if passed a formidable step toward the establishment of a military despotism. It has no chance of becoming a law, thanks this time to the Copperheads and Radicals who voted together against the Conservative and thus defeated its passage.

NEW TO-DAY.

Notice to Settlers on State Lands.

THE SIXTH SECTION of the Act of the Legislative Assembly of Oregon, approved October 15, 1862 provides that "All persons who have located lands under the "provisions of the Act of this State which was approved "October 19th, 1860, shall pay to the State one dollar and "twenty-five cents per acre for the lands so selected."

Such persons are requested to make payment and receive deeds.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 6, 1863.

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co

Gentlemen: I feel it a duty I owe to others to let them know the value of your Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam during my Cough. My little girl, seven years old, had an attack of Croup and came very near dying before her use Wm. Hall's Balsam, as directed, which gave relief in a very short time. We have used it in cases of bad cough, with the happiest effect. Benjamin Eakin, Eighth street, between Main and Sycamore streets. For sale by Druggists everywhere. THE WILSON G. HUNT.—This old favorite of ours reached her wharf at 6 o'clock yesterday evening, from her last trip to the Cascades at least for some time, and shortly after her stores were transferred to the New World, and she dropped down to the Company's boat yard: not to rot and decay, however; she is too good for that, yet; but for safe keeping and to be repaired and overhauled. The Hunt, like the New World, was built in New York. She has plowed the tide of two of the grandest rivers in America, the North river and the Columbia, and thousands have gazed on their first views of majestic scenery, on both sides of this continent, from her decks. She has carried smoothly and safely over the surface of these waters many thousands who are now striving for a realization of bright hopes, inspired by the music of her paddles, who will ever class her among their most cherished memories, as do those whom she has assisted upon their return from the gold cruise.

DEPARTURE OF THE PACIFIC.—The steamship Pacific, A. M. Burns, Commander, left this port at 8 o'clock last evening for Victoria and San Francisco. She carries twenty-two passengers from Portland, and the following lots of freight: 450 bxs of apples; 137 gunnies of bacon; 53 kegs of lard; 30 packages of eggs; 9 cases of butter; 13 bales of wool; 4 bales of furs, 9 cases of merchandise, and 6 horses. The amount is not large, but shows that no matter how dull times may be periodically, we always have something to export. The commercial interests of a community always rests mainly with the farmer, and we should be happy to see them swell the amount of exports enormously, by attention to their farms, no fears need ever be entertained of producing too much in Oregon while the wealth and population of the coast continues to increase in the present ratio.

THE FIRST TRIP.—To day opens another page in the history and development of the commerce of the Columbia. The officers and business of the O. S. N. Company's steamer Wilson G. Hunt were last evening transferred to their new steamer, the New World, which will leave her wharf for the Cascades at five o'clock A. M. A band of music has been engaged for the occasion, and a bevy of ladies and gentlemen will honor the saloons with their presence on the excursion, for such it is, notwithstanding she carries nearly double the usual freight of the Hunt, at the same time. We acknowledge a pressing invitation to be present on the trip, but regret our inability to attend.

ENTERPRISE.—We notice that the old log cause-way, over the ravine on First street, is being made the receptacle of rubbish of all kinds. It shows a commendable spirit of enterprise, in filling up holes in the streets, but we think it is quite inappropriate there, at the present time. If we continue to prosper as a city, some of these days arched bridges will take the place of rotten logs and rubbish at such crossings, when the deposits of superfluous trash will be removed.

MESS CHESTS.—A couple of mess chests, of Perot & Co.'s pattern, Philadelphia, such as are in common use in the United States army, were landed in this city yesterday from the steamer Pacific. The interior of these chests, about 2 by 4 feet in size, 20 inches deep, contains all the requisite articles for conducting a culinary department in camp, and by an arrangement of the chest itself, a party of five or six persons can comfortably dine from its lids.

THE FREIGHT OF THE SENATOR.—The P. T. Co.'s steamer Senator took a full cargo of merchandise up the Willamette yesterday, and made an exchange at Oregon City, returning with produce of the valley as follows: apples, 59 boxes; flour, 650 sacks; oats, 144 sacks; bacon, 32 sacks; 10-4 bushels of wheat were brought down for the Brooklyn mills. This is a fair average of the every day business on that line at present.

TREASURE BY THE STEAMSHIP.—The treasure shipments per steamer Pacific last evening, as shown by the manifests, amounted to $112,486, as follows:

Wells, Fargo & Co.	$75,000
Ladd & Tilton	21,000
Oregon Steam Navigation Co.	9,886
A. Cahn & Co.	4,600
Elfelt, Well & Co.	1,800
Total	$112,486

DEPARTURE OF THE ELLEN.—The schooner Ellen left Couch's wharf for the mouth of the Columbia, yesterday afternoon. Her cargo consisted of 15,000 brick, several thousand shingles, and a quantity of lath. The steamer Vancouver was employed to tow the schooner as far as the Columbia river, where she is expected to work her own way down.

RAIN.—About noon yesterday we were favored with a smart shower of rain, effectually putting a damper on the employment of a street-sprinkler, and beautifully watering vegetation. All nature seemed refreshed in consequence of it, but the signs at evening indicated the approach of jack frost.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The annual meeting of the Oregon State Bible Society will be held at the Methodist Church in this city, on Wednesday next, the 11th inst. The anniversary sermon will be delivered on the following Sunday evening, by Rev. C. C. Stratton of Oregon City.

THE steamer Wilson G. Hunt carried 150 tons of freight, 19 head of stock, and 90 passengers to the Cascades yesterday. On the return trip she brought about 20 passengers, and five horses. The bullion received by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express amounted to $10,000.

W. T. STATUTES.—We have received from Mr. T. F. McElroy, Public Printer of Washington Territory, a copy of the statutes made and passed at the last session of the legislature at Olympia. The work contains 208 pages, and is very fin

W T STATUTES.—We have received from Mr. T F McElroy, Public Printer of Washington Territory, a copy of the statutes made and passed at the last session of the legislature at Olympia. The work contains 208 pages, and is very finely executed on good paper.

BEEF CATTLE FOR VICTORIA.—About three hundred head of fat cattle are at Willamette slough, awaiting shipment to Monticello from which place they will proceed to Victoria. The steamer Express has been engaged to convey them to the Cowlitz river.

A FULL LOAD.—The steamer Vancouver, Capt. Turnbull, received a full cargo of merchandise at Couch's wharf yesterday, and started for home loaded to the guards, besides having a schooner in tow.

COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.—The City Marshal and Collector gives notice to teamsters and drivers in the city that they must renew their licenses, according to the provisions of the Council. Mr. Hyde is one of our most punctual men, and it is but in addition to his many other duties that he has to call them up with a reminder of the fact; which in turn it is a familiar experience.

RICHARDSON'S SALE.—The 50 per cent. addition tax on foreign goods although it raised the price of gold in New York can in no way interfere with A B Richardson's Auction Saturday. Such as he has he will offer (which by the way are pretty good) and trust to the chances of getting any more.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.—That Shelly has received by this steamer the finest assorted stock of Boots and Shoes that has ever before been offered in this market. A similar demonstration would convince you of the fact. See to it, and consult your interest.

Weakness of the Kidneys.—In the affection of the kidneys called Bright's disease the general prostration and irritation which weakness generally resist all medical treatment, as the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If the organization has not proceeded too far the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the grim disease and restore the patient to comfortable if not perfect health.

Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers every where. ap23d1m

STOP THAT COUGHING!

SOME OF YOU CAN'T AND WE PITY YOU. YOU have tried from motives that honesty and that one to destroy it with the most powerful preparations. It has baffled your experiments and you have given up in disgust. Our compounds defy detection in the public as a certain cure.

NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup

is really what we claim it is namely the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs Colds Sore Throat Whooping Cough Croup Bronchitis and Consumption. It does not dry up the secretions and thus leave the disease in the system to run on to a more fatal termination, but it relieves the irritation, causes the patient to expectorate freely, and thus carries off the disease. One trial will convince you of its superior virtues over any other medicine. Its wonderful effects in curing the most distressing cases of Coughs Colds Sore Throat Whooping Cough Croup Bronchitis and Consumption, has made it the most popular Cough Medicine in use. Many who have been given up by their physicians as incurable, by the use of this Syrup have been restored to perfect health, and now join their friends and neighbors in proclaiming its virtues. Even the most obstinate cases of Coughs Colds Sore Throat Whooping Cough Croup Bronchitis and Consumption, have yielded to its wonderful curative powers.

NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!

And with one accord do we recommend it to the afflicted. We do not ask you to take our word for all we say in its favor, but call on those in your midst who have used it, and learn from them the truth of our statements. We know that it will do all we claim for it, and we say unhesitatingly to every sufferer from Pulmonary Complaints, that if they will use this Syrup according to directions, and not be cured of their disease, we will refund the money paid for it.

NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!

Has cured thousands and it will cure YOU if you try it.
This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste soothing healing and strengthening. It contains no ingredients entirely free from all poisonous or deleterious drugs, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances.
Certificates from many prominent citizens of San Francisco, accompany every bottle of

Fling out the bright banner the Red White and Blue
The glad day is dawning for mankind forlyon,
For Freedom her pinion at length has unfurled,
And peace stands triumphtos to gladden the world!
Then down with Rebellion and Tyranny too
And up with the banner to Liberty true
The triple-hued banner the time-honored banner
The glory hung banner the Red White and Blue!

Wake! mountain and hill drop rock river and sea
Come join in our chorus The last shall be free!
No despot shall rule it with Tyranny thong
The slaves shall be freemen the weak hall be strong
Then down with Rebellion and Tyranny too,
And up with the banner to Liberty true
The triple-hued banner the time-hon red banner,
The glory hung banner the Red White and Blue

Oh, red are the fields where the foemen have tred
And white are the faces half under the sod
And blue are the skies from whose portals of light

How to See the Show

An Englishman makes a growl in a London newspaper, about a New York hotel, in the following words

As for the appetite of the men folks, there is little to be wondered at in it They have always in view at meal times a high moral purpose They have a duty to perform They pay three dollars a day for their board at Willard s and they are determined to have their money's worth for their money Thus, there is breakfast from half past seven to eleven, dining from half past to one to three, dining again at five, tea at half-past seven, and supper at nine You may be always eating, and there do seem to be guests at Willard's who never miss a meal, but are continually gorging Some art is requisite, some fineness, has to be exercised, however, to obtain a meal to your liking There is nothing on the table itself save the knives, forks, and glasses the castors and the condiments, such as celery, anchovies, dried smelts, cod's sounds, olives, salted cucumber, beet root and cold slaugh No dishes are handed to you, and unless you are loud of voice, and authoritative in gesture, you will not find the waiters very attentive to you But a prodigious bill of fare is before you, and from it you mentally select such dishes as you think will suit your palate Then you beckon a black waiter, and in a deliberate and determined tone tell him what you want He grins from ear to ear, rolls his eyes, and glides away If you have fed him, or you look good natured and he thinks you will fee him, or he has taken a fancy to you, he speedily returns with a tray full of oval white dishes, containing the viands you have ordered

If he does not care much about you, or is engrossed in attending to a regular boarder who has bribed him to be attentive all through the winter months, you have to wait many minutes—perhaps half an hour—before you obtain anything at all, and then very probably the waiter has been oblivious, and brings you the wrong things There is, in all cases, one peril against which the stranger should be warned Order but a few dishes and you are lost The negro will put you down as a mean cuss, a "one horse" sort of a person and systematically neglect you. But order half the dishes set down in the bill of fare, and he will at once entertain an exaggerated notion of your importance, and almost fly to execute your commands The first time I breakfasted at Willard's, I said, modestly, that I should like a cup of tea, some dry toast, an egg and a little toasted bacon It struck me that the waiter regarded me with a very contemptuous look, and that he retired from my presence in a very slow and supercilious manner I waited, and waited, and waited, but no toast, no egg, no bacon came There was sitting opposite me a dapper little man, with a large beard and embroidered shirt front with diamond studs, a cut velvet vest, and a pea jacket "Here, you," he cried to the nearest Ethiop, "bring me some fried oysters, some stewed oysters, some tenderloin steak and onions, some scrambled eggs, pork cutlets, some fish balls, some dipped toast, some Graham bread, some mashed turnips, some cold ham, some buckwheat cakes, some hot coffee, and some blanc mange. I've paid my money, and by , I mean to see the show" The only way to get on in America is, having once paid your money, to insist on seeing the show. If you don't, the people will think you are mean spirited, and trample on you

MATCHED BY A WOMAN —In the somewhat famous case of Mrs. Bogden's will, which was tried some years ago, Mr Webster appeared as counsellor for the appellant Mrs Greenough late of West Newton, a tall, straight, queenly looking woman, with a keen black eye—a woman of great self possession and decision of character—was called as a witness on the opposite side Mr Webster at a glance had the sagacity to foresee that her testimony, if it contained anything of importance, would have great weight with the jury. He therefore resolved, if possible, to break her up, and when she answered the first question put to her—

"I believe," Mr Webster roared out, "we don't want to hear what you believe; we want to know what you know"

Mrs. Greenough replied, "That is just what I was about to say, sir," and went on with her testimony.

And, notwithstanding his repeated efforts to disconcert her, she pursued the even tenor of her way, until Webster, becoming quite fearful of the result, arose, apparently in great agitation, and drawing out his large snuff box, thrust his thumb and finger to the very bottom, and carrying the deep pinch to both nostrils, drew it up with great gusto

Webster—"Mrs Greenough, was Mrs Bogden a neat woman?"

Mrs Greenough—"I cannot give you very full information as to that, sir, she had one very dirty trick"

Webster—"What's that, ma'am?"

Mrs Greenough—"She took snuff"

The roar of the court was such that he neither rose nor spoke again till after Mrs. Greenough had vacated the stand for another witness

LOGAN —An old officer of the United States Army, who, soon after the close of the revolutionary war, was ordered to make surveys of the country watered by the Allegheny river, informed me that Logan's nephew, a remarkably fine young Indian, dined one day with him in his tent, and he asked him what became of Logan "I killed him" was the reply "Why did you kill him?" "The nation ordered it" "For what reason?" "He was too great a man to live He talked so well, that although the whole nation had intended to put any plan into execution, yet, if Logan did not approve of it, he would soon gain a majority in favor of his opinions" "Was he not, then, generally in the right?" "Often; but his influence divided the nation too much" "Why did they choose you to put him to death?" "If any one else had done it, I should certainly have killed him, I, who am his nephew, shall inherit his greatness" "Will they no, then, kill you also?" "Yes, and when I become as great a man as Logan," laying his hand on his breast with dignity, "I shall be content to die" He added that he shot him near the Alleghany river "When informed of the resolution of the council of his nation, Logan stopped his horse, drew himself up in an attitude of great dignity, and received the fatal ball without a murmur."—Figure's Six Months in America

Worms

A PRACTICAL LESSON

Mother—Do you think, Doctor there is any danger of my child having a return of those frightful convulsions? Can you do anything to prevent it?

Doctor—I think, madam, I can promise you that the child will recover The convulsions are caused by worms and I am about to destroy the worms and then, I hope your child will be well again

Father—How is that, Doctor? Destroy the worms! I called you here to cure my child, and not to cure worms

Doctor—You misunderstand me, I say the convulsions depend on the presence of worms, and I fear they will recur so long as the cause continues to operate I propose to destroy the worms because they keep the child sick

Father—I do not like this plan of treatment, it seems to me too harsh Perhaps the medicine will excite the worms and then they will torment the child still more Let us try milder measures They say worms like sugar let us give some sugar to appease them

Doctor—Such treatment will only cause them to multiply still more and render them the more dangerous Let them once feel the effects of my medicine, and I promise you they will never do any more mischief

Father—The great point is the cure of the child Let us attend to that and not allow ourselves to be diverted by collateral matters. Cure the child first, and then we will see what is the best to be done with the worms

Doctor—(Getting angry)—I tell you again, I cannot cure the child without destroying the worms It seems to me you have a great regard for those miserable creatures, that you are willing to have your child suffer and perhaps die, in order to spare them

Mother—It really seems to me that what the Doctor says is reasonable; we had better

Father—(Interrupting her)—My dear, you do not understand these things The Doctor evidently has a fanatical hatred of worms, and I detest fanaticism He belongs to the sect which has been disturbing the public by malignant assaults on worms Here is our dear child dangerously sick, and he makes this the pretext for carrying out his radical notions about worms Why cannot he do one thing at a time? Let him cure the child first.

Doctor—Why, you fool I tell you the child cannot be cured without killing the worms. Do you love the worms more than your child? But I leave you to manage for yourself—(Exit)

Mother—My dear, pray call back the Doctor. What will become of our poor child?

Father—The malignant radical shall never come into my house again. He is a man of one idea, a fanatic I am determined to have a doctor who will cure my child without destroying the worms And then did you not hear him say that I do not love the child?

Mother—You certainly have a strange way of showing your affection. But there is the child again falling into convulsions.

We hope those who love slavery more than they do the country, will have sense enough to see the practical application of the above

BACKENSACK ELOQUENCE —Rev G D of Fayette county, Ark', one of the genuine "forest born" orators, preaching, not long since on "the glory of the saints," delivered the following burst of "native" eloquence, which is too good to be lost "Who, my brethren, can describe the glory of the saints? Why nothing on earth can liken it. If you drill a hole through the sun and put it on your head for a crown, and split the moon in sunder and put the pieces on your shoulders for epaulettes—if you tear down the starry curtain of the skies and wrap it around your body for a robe, and ride to heaven on the lightning wings of the tempest—this will be nothing to the glory of the saints"

Professor Johnstone was one day lecturing before the students on mineralogy He had before him a number of specimens of various sorts to illustrate the subject, when a roguish student, for sport, slyly slipped a piece of brick among the stones The professor was taking up the stones one after the other, and naming them "This," he said, "is a piece of granite, this is felspar," etc. Presently he came to the brick bat Without betraying any surprise, or even changing the tone of his voice, "This," he said, holding it up, "is a piece of impudence"

It is well known that the edicinal properties of Protoxide of Iron are lost by even a very brief exposure to the air or that to maintain a solution of it perfectly free from further oxidation has been deemed impossible

In the Peruvian Syrup this difficulty is said to be overcome by combining it in a way before unknown and this solution may be kept in all climates without change and tartrate of the Materia Medica A. A. HAYES M. D

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry and it is impossible to over estimate its influence as a remedial agent Iodine has been considered the most potent article in Materia Medica and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost unknown until Dr Mercy Andrews a physician and chemist of New York after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER

without a solvent This considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city and Prof Booth U S Mint Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was highly appreciated by the faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see American Medical Monthly, July 6 1860 page 10)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer Heart Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections Dyspepsia, Bronchitis etc

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine The patient recovers flesh strength and color, his whole frame relaxed and feeble becomes full strong and florid
